On Saturday, November 12 at 10 am to 12:30 pm at CCCR we will have a workshop on “The Power of Life in the Spirit Seminars.” There will be separate English and Spanish presentations. Everyone is welcome so you can better understand the purpose of this seminar that has been so important in touching many people’s lives. All prayer groups should be represented. You will learn how to: Invite people; explain it to your pastor and parish; giving the teachings well; explaining baptism in the Spirit and how to pray for people for this; different ways of giving the Seminar; and how to develop a team.

On Saturday, December 3 at 10am at CCCR we will have our annual Washing of the Hands Mass with Bishop Tom Flanagan. We start the new Church year by this prayer time together to ask that we can be servants of God’s purposes for charismatic renewal in the Church during the year. It is important that we come together and pray in unity. Please organize people in your prayer group to come together to this event. We will have a light social of drinks and deserts after the Mass.

We will be in the process of making some changes in this newsletter over the next few months. The major change will be to include more teaching, especially to help people to better understand and explain the charismatic renewal movement. In this issue we will start with an article that I (Fr. Bob) wrote for Pentecost Today magazine:

WHY DID GOD START CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC RENEWAL?

I would not be so bold to say that I know the full answer to this question! However, I believe that it is very important for us to reflect on what God has done in this renewal, and seek to better understand God’s purposes. Charismatic renewal will be most fruitful when we are fully living the grace or charism that God has given for this Renewal. The Mission Statement of the National Service Committee for Catholic Charismatic Renewal gives us some important insights. Let me quote the section that will be our main focus:

“Encouraging the awareness and experience of the full role of the Holy Spirit among Catholic Charismatic Renewal groups and ministries, with the goal of reminding the Church to be fully conscious of this role. This action of the Holy Spirit leads to:

- * Experiencing union with God
- * Inner transformation leading to personal holiness
- * Ministry empowered by the charisms for evangelization and service
- * Building communities that witness to a renewed Catholic life.”

Explaining the Purpose of Charismatic Renewal

What do we say to people who ask us “What is charismatic renewal?” A good starting point is to say that “we believe that God has called us to emphasize the importance of the role of the Holy Spirit.” Pope John Paul II in his Encyclical on the Holy Spirit, Lord and Giver of Life (1986, #2), wrote:

“The Second Vatican Ecumenical Council...brought out the need for a new study of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit, as Paul VI emphasized: “The Christology and particularly the ecclesiology of the Council must be succeeded by a new study of and devotion to the Holy Spirit, precisely as the indispensable complement to the teaching of the Council” (General Audience, 6 June 1973).”

Charismatic renewal has been a living example of a “new devotion to the Holy Spirit.” The Mission Statement in describing the four major aspects of the full role of the Holy Spirit calls us to be aware of all of them, rather than focusing on one or two. Steve Clark in his book, Charismatic Spirituality, states:

"Probably everyone familiar with the charismatic renewal movement would agree that it has been concerned with "baptism in the Spirit" and "spiritual gifts." In the early days of the movement, these were the two most common topics of discussion and seemed to define the renewal itself. But there is a more helpful way of defining "charismatic renewal." "Charismatic renewal" is best understood as a renewal in the work of the Holy Spirit. That work includes baptism in the Spirit and spiritual gifts, but these can be only understood well in the context of the complete work of the Holy Spirit. They are not supposed to stand out by themselves" (p.2).

What Steve Clark calls "the complete work of the Holy Spirit," and the Mission Statement calls "the full role of the Holy Spirit," involves the four dimensions of union with God, transformation for holiness, ministry empowered by charisms, and building community. Charismatic renewal is strongest when we are seeking to live all four of these dimensions of the Spirit's work. We want to be fully "charismatic," ministering in the gifts and power of the Spirit. However, this needs to be balanced with being open to inner transformation that leads us to growth in holiness and the fruit of the Spirit. We need to be growing within community, since the gifts are only fully manifested and maturely lived as part of the body of Christ. Most of all, we need to keep our focus on growing in union with God, knowing Jesus as Lord, God as "Abba/Father," and living as a temple of the Holy Spirit. It would be good to consciously ask ourselves how our groups can make sure that all four aspects are emphasized.

Fully Aware, Fully Conscious, and Living in the Spirit

I believe that God wants all his people to become more fully aware of the Holy Spirit in our lives; to more fully experience the Holy Spirit working in us and through us; and to have this Renewal be a reminder in the Church of the importance of being fully conscious of the role of the Holy Spirit in every aspect of Catholic living. Charismatic Renewal groups should be a training ground for learning to live fully in the Spirit. Our teaching should have a special emphasis on the Holy Spirit in all four of the major dimensions. However, we should also teach about all areas that are important for Catholic life, being especially conscious to show how the Holy Spirit relates to each topic. The Holy Spirit is important for evangelization, decision making, family life, communication and relationships, developing groups, pro-life ministry, counseling, overcoming compulsions and addictions, the Eucharist, all the Sacraments, preaching and teaching, etc. In charismatic renewal we are called to live with an ever growing, conscious awareness of our union with our Advocate, the Holy Spirit.

Being a Reminder within the Church

The Holy Spirit works in many ways, not only in charismatic renewal. However, this renewal movement is called to be a reminder in the Church of the importance of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the "Great Reminder." Jesus tells us that "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name-he will teach you and remind you of all that I told you" (Jn 14:26). Paul says, "I remind you to stir into a flame the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands. For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power, love and self-control" (2 Tm 1:6-7). The word "remind" does not mean to simply recall a past event, but means to make something real again. Charismatic renewal seeks to "make real again" the experience of Pentecost and the full life in the Spirit. We must first live this as completely as possible ourselves in all its richness with all humility and joy. At the same time we are called to share what we have learned; learn from all the Spirit's manifestations in the wider Church; and seek together to live more fully conscious of the role of the Holy Spirit.

We are called to remember that Advent is a season of the Holy Spirit since we celebrate the coming of the Messiah/the Christ/the Anointed One of the Spirit who is conceived by the Holy Spirit. In Lent we recall that it is the Holy Spirit that leads Jesus to the desert for 40 days to face temptation. In the Easter Season we see the Resurrected Lord breathe on the apostles and say, "Receive the Holy Spirit." At his Ascension he tells his disciples, "I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high" (Lk 24:49). On Pentecost this promise is fulfilled.

Why did God start charismatic renewal? Why did God call St. Francis to start the Franciscans? Why did God call St. Faustina to promote devotion to Divine Mercy? Why did God develop the rosary in the Church over the course of the centuries? Why does God raise up new religious communities, Marian movements, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, etc? The Holy Spirit makes all things new and is always seeking to bring renewal to the Church and remind us of the important realities of our faith. We need to understand and experience the Holy Spirit in order to understand the entire charismatic dimension of the Church. The Spirit blows where he wills. In our age God has decided to not only have the Holy Spirit remind us of other aspects of the faith, making them alive again, but to remind us and awaken again the call to live fully in union with the Holy Spirit, participating in all his gifts, fruits, love and power. What a great calling! Let us live it fully, share it with all joy and humility, and let the Holy Spirit show us how to be a reminder in the Church of this great gift.

Kid's Article

We were walking outdoors and my 7 year old, Abram, points to the sky and says, "Jesus is there." I look up to see a blue sky with white clouds. There was a cluster of clouds with the sun trying to break through among them. It was beautiful. I looked down at him and asked, "What makes you say that?" He replied with, "Because Jesus is the Light." I love that he sees God first. He could have said, "Oh, look at the sun behind the clouds." Proverbs 6:22 says, "Train your child the way he should go, and when he grows old, he will not turn from it." God says it, let us live it.

Our 4 year old, Julia, has these little open toe sandals that strap all the way from the toes to the high ankle. We were with my parents one evening. My dad loves her to pieces and always is looking to compliment her. He told her, "Julia, I like your sandals". She said, "Yes, I know, I look like Jesus." It makes me laugh as I type this. Not really sure if Jesus had that many straps on his sandals, but it is sure funny to hear her relate to his attire. Love the kid stuff!

Foundational Teachings of the Church and the Role of the Holy Spirit

1) ROLE OF THE BIBLE:

"All scripture is inspired by God..." (2 Timothy 3:14-17); "no prophecy of scripture is a matter of personal interpretation, for no prophecy ever came through human will; but rather human beings moved by the Holy Spirit spoke under the influence of God" (2 Peter 1:20-21).

A) Role of Tradition (Handed on in the Community): "Stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught, either by oral statement or by a letter of ours" (2 Th 2:15). See 1 Cor 11:23-26; Luke 1:1-4; John 21-24-25; 1 John 2:24-27.

B) Role of the Apostles and Bishops (Church Teaching Authority):

1. Apostles given special authority by Jesus: Mt 10:1-15; 18:18; 28:16-20.
2. Apostles role in First Deacons (Acts 6:1-7).
3. Apostles role in Jerusalem Council (Acts 15:1-29; 10:1-49).

2) ROLE OF THE SACRAMENTS: Unchanging foundational graces rooted in Jesus' words and ministry and continued in the Church under the leadership of the apostles and bishops. They give a solid foundation of graces for the Church. The Church believes in sacraments and charisms.

A) Holy Spirit works in all sacraments: Holy Spirit symbols of water, oil, laying of hands.

1. Water: Baptism (living water of cleansing and refreshing)
2. Oil: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, Anointing of the Sick. Oil symbolizes the grace of the Holy Spirit. The word "Christ" means "messiah" or "Anointed One."
3. Laying or extending of hands: Confirmation, Eucharist, Anointing, Matrimony. This symbolizes and invoking of the Spirit to come open a person or object.

3) UNDERSTANDING SALVATION IN JESUS CHRIST: "No one can say 'Jesus is Lord,' except by the Holy Spirit" (1 Cor 12:3).

- A) Jesus means savior: Saved from the world, flesh, devil (Titus 3:3-8). See Isaiah 53:1-12, "By his wounds we were healed." Saved by faith in Jesus and what he has done for us, not by being a good person, but this faith must lived out in love.
- B) Christ means anointed one: Saved for life in the Spirit and eternal life. Jesus: "It is better for you that I go" so I can send the Spirit.
- C) When you are asked, "Are you saved?" You can say that I was saved; I am being saved; I will be saved.

4) ROLE OF THE SAINTS AND MARY:

A) In the bible all believers in Jesus are called saints: "you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone" (Eph 2:19-20). See Rom 12:13, 16:15; 1 Cor 16:1, 15; 2 Cor 1:1; Eph 1:1; Phil 1:1, 4:21-22; Phlm 1:5.

B) Apostles Creed: I believe in the "communion of saints." The bond of unity between the living and the dead who are united with Jesus (The body of Christ: "If one member suffers, all suffer" 1 Cor 12:26).

C) Those who die in Christ are alive to God: "I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He is not the God of the dead, but of the living" (Mt 12:26-27), and those judged worthy of the resurrected life are "alive to God" (Lk 20:34-38).

D) Saints as witnesses: "so great a cloud of witnesses" (Heb 12:1). Saints as intercessors: Rev 5:8 shows the saints in heaven interceding for the saints on earth by offering their prayers to God.

E) Mary as unique witness/model, intercessor/mother in the Spirit, and charismatic messenger (apparitions).

5) ROLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AND SPIRITUAL GIFTS (CHARISMS): Manifestations.

A) Spiritual gift (charisms) are given to all followers of Jesus to build up the Church. Give ongoing dynamism of graces for the Church.

B) See 1 Corinthians 12 and 14; Romans 12:3-8; Ephesians 4:11-16.

*I thank you Lord as I volunteer for the chance to serve another year, and to give of myself in some small way to those not blessed as I each day. My thanks for health and mind and soul, to aid me toward my goal. For eyes to see the good in all, a hand to extend before a fall. For legs to go where the need is great, learning to love and forgetting to hate. For ears to hear and a heart to care, when someone's cross is hard to bear.
